When we were small children, Waylund was the daredevil of the cousins! I will always picture him turning flips (somersaults) everywhere. He flipped in the yard, off the roof, off the dressers, out of trees, and never hesitated. He flipped with and without using his hands. He dared the rest of us to do it as he did. I was never able to match his tenacity and determination.

I have no doubts that he is facing the Almighty with that same tenacity and determination. I am happy that he accepted Christ before he left his Earthly body, and I believe he will use his heavenly body to challenge others to do a little bit more than they ever thought they could!

I wish I had a physical picture to share with you that resembles the picture of Waylund I'll carry with me forever. May the Good Lord wrap his never tiring arms around our family, granting comfort and acceptance.

Peace and Blessings,
Cousin DEvera Moore
