"It hasn't been easy for those who loved Lillie to deal with her passing. Lillie faced a long battle that tested her physically, but which made her life difficult for her loved ones. Comfort can be hard to find when you see someone you care for so much going through such a hard experience."

"I believe that it's best to remember Lillie as she truly was . . . a smiling, caring soul who always made time to help others. A great friend who could binge on ice cream with you after a tough situation or be there with you to celebrate birthdays and anniversaries. Although Lillie was a Double-Amputee, that never stopped her from doing the things that she loved doing. It is easy to dwell on the fact that Lillie has left us too soon, but I prefer to remember the wonderful times that we all got to share while she was here."

"Lillie will be remembered not only as a terrific and a vibrant individual, but also as a dependable mother-like, aunt and friend. It is impossible to not feel sorrow when losing such an amazing human being, but I think we all can also say that Lillie would want us to pick ourselves up, find the things that inspire us and make a real difference in the world. That is what she did and the best way we can honor her is to do the same."
