“ *My dear ms Alice,
I remember all your interesting stories, advices, your massive love for fufu, dance and uplifting spirit. How you will tease me and call me Mitsubishi. There was never a dull moment with you. You were like a grandmother, mother, sister, friend and co-worker to me! You always had good intentions towards me. You had an awesome and cheerful personality. All this memories will always be treasured . I would miss you..... Till we meet to part no more!!!!*

“My sincere condolences to the family for such a loss. I share a memory when Auntie Alice paid a visit to us in Ghana some years back. She was very interesting to be with and she told us many wonderful things. I reminiscent a lot from what Auntie Alice shared with us. She will forever be remembered. May God guide your soul and protect the family.”

“ My deepest sympathy & sincere condolences to the family of Alice Debrah. Suffering the loss of a dear loved one can be hard, and it is my hope that you find comfort by meditating on Jehovah God’s promises found in the Bible. There you can find real hope and the strength to keep going.—1 Thessalonians 4:13.

I will always miss you, the joy we share everytime at church. You were such a wonderful person with great soft spirit that welcomes everyone to your side. I feel like you just took a vacation like you always go to Canada on visit and come back fresh and young. I will miss you very much. I love you Mama Alice.

*In Memory of my beloved mother
Every moment spent with you was awesome.
Your infectious joy, sense of humour, love for God and others,
kindness, free spirit and beautiful soul we missed so much.
Our hearts were broken when you left us expectedly.
We missed you as much today as we did the day you departed.
Oh how I wish you could hear your praise among your family and friends.
When we lost you, we lost a precious mother, grandmother, counsellor, intercessor and friend.
The vacuum your absence has created can never be filled because you were unique.
We will forever cherish the precious memories we have of you.
May your soul rest in peace till we meet again my love.*
