“ Evening peace family, my heart was saddened to hear that my cousin Alice Faye had been called home. I'm comforted because I know that she was met by that great cloud of witnesses that included her Mom and Dad. Deborah, Lee, Anthony you all are in my prayers and I'm asking God to hold you close. We don't see each other much but the love we have for each other transcends time. I love y'all! Stay close to Jesus, He will help you through. Grace and peace be upon you all.

“ My condolences cousins, I always thought Aunt Alice and my mother favored a lot. A funny memory I remember aunt Alice and aunt Velma Pulling up to the house, I would be on the porch parading around imitating them, With my hands on my hips and in a high pitch voice just like aunt Alice I would say "yall come on in" in that same high pitch voice auntie would say girl if you don't get your fast tail over there and hold them dogs down while we get out this car. I would laugh 😊😊 those were the days. Cousins My prayers and thoughts will continue to be with you RIP sweet aunt Alice Grandma, it still feels unreal that you're gone. I keep hoping this is just a dream, but each time I wake, I'm faced with the reality that you're no longer here. My heart aches knowing I can't hear your voice, see your smile, or feel the warmth of your embrace. You were my safe place, my comfort, and my constant source of love. I will always love you, and even though the days ahead will be hard, I will push through—because I know that's what you would want me to do. Even though you are no longer with me in the way I wish you were, your spirit, your wisdom, and your love will live on in my heart forever. Until we meet again, I will hold onto the precious memories we shared and honor the legacy you left behind.

*Love you always and forever,
