

Mr. Armazeral Hooks

September 11, 1941 - December 14, 2018

Armazeral Hooks was born to Homer and Myrtle M. Hooks on September 11, 1941 in Tatum, Oklahoma. He was a very True and Loyal Friend; always immaculately dressed from head to toe; he loved sports: Fishing, Golfing, Thoroughbred Horse Racing, Basketball, and Football (DALLAS COWBOYS); he had a Big Love for Jazz Music and he would often say (Oh Play that Victrola); he was always concerned about others welfare, and he would often visit the sick and shut-in. Hooks was Good Friend with a Big Heart, and he will truly be missed by all. Armazeral Hooks had strong Faith in God and he often expressed the presence and the need of God in his everyday life.
