“ There's something special about matriarchs. Their cheerfulness and strength are legend. They command attention with a glance and change attitudes with a stare. Their power is a quiet and comforting power of a motherhood seasoned by time and fortified by wisdom. Ms. Davis was just this quality of person and her radiance and fragrance sorely and deeply missed has been irretrievably passed on to her daughters and grand daughters as surely as the eagle spreads its mighty wings to fly. I extend continuous prayers and sincere sympathy to the family and friends of this most exemplary matriarchs. May her sweet soul rest in perpetual peace. The Solomon Family salutes all in Love.

“ As a child I would walk across the street and Ms. Barbara would always have jell-o and a warm hug for me. Those memories would always make us laugh when we say one another. She was one of the sweetest neighbors I ever had. She had such a kind and gentle spirit. Rest in Paradise Ms.Barbara.

“ What a blessing to know and worship the Lord with Sister Davis. Her joyful spirit was infectious as she could ignite the entire church with her enthusiasm for praise and worship of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I can hear her now saying Boom-shakalaka when it really got good. She will be missed for sure. Pastor Woodson
