“ It's hard for me to imagine a world without Granny Bobbi, but I find comfort in knowing that she is with the Lord. She always loved and treated us as if we were her very own blood grandchildren. I'm going to miss her dearly. I know she will be praying for us all on the other side just like she did while she was with us.

*I love you Granny Bobbi,

“ Mrs. Foster holds the key to a woman of integrity & character who exhibits one of the "quietest forces" and "influences" I grew up admiring at True Vine. Can't nobody produce a smile as big and captivating as hers I speak of her in the present tense because she lives on, rejoicing about experiencing what she has lived about all the years I've known her. God bless you, family. Cherryl Williams Barnett

“ To Danita and to your entire family, My heartfelt condolences and prayers are with you during this very difficult time. I had the pleasure of meeting and getting to know your Mother and she never met a stranger. She displayed love and kindness to everyone that she met. She has truly already been missed by many and loved by all. My prayer is that you will be comforted by knowing that your beautiful Mom had such a impact on so many people. May she eternally rest in love.
With Love, Kilpatrick

“ Words cannot express the loss I feel at the death of my dear mother, Barbara J. Foster. I remember when I was a little boy she was always reading books and I would read them when she was done. My mother read Piers Anthony, Koontz, Andre Norton, everything from science fantasy to mystery and horror. She was the source of my love for reading and she was the spark that ignited my need to learn all I could learn. I always knew I was loved and I loved her back. This morning when I woke up my first thought was I need to call mom today and then I remembered she was gone and I'll never get to speak to her in the flesh again. Every time I think of it it makes me feel empty inside, But then I remember the happy times, the custard pie, the tuna casserole the chicken noodle soup made from scratch, all those things that were made special because she put her love into it and I find joy. It's hard but I believe my mother wants me to find joy by remembering how beautiful her soul was and the love she radiated to her children and everyone around her. Her love was unconditional. I hope I can have the strength of spirit she had as I continue this journey and become the man she always envisioned I would become. I miss you deeply mom.

“ First let me give condolences to the entire Foster \ Langston Family for the lost of one of the most loved women I have ever been graced with knowing in my life, Mrs. Barbara Foster. Momma Foster it was a Blessing to me to have shared being your daughter-in-law. I will always cherish the talks and memories you gave me. I appreciate the times when you would call me and pray with me about anything and encourage me about whatever I was going through. You would often say to me "Franny no matter what it is good or bad always know that God understand and is always on your side ". I can't help but remember the night Papa (William) Foster went home to be with the Lord, the look in your eye's had so much pain..I couldn't help but stand staring at you feeling afraid for you wondering how you would get through it, but you kept it together and was able to be strong for the family...when I lost my Mother last year you called me and said to me " Franny it's better to know your Mother is at peace then to have worry, she's not suffering ". Loosing my Mother last year and now loosing you is SOOOOOO heavy on my heart , but I do have peace in knowing you both are at rest and there is no more worry or suffering, you are with the Lord and there is no better place to be...I will always, always cherish every memory of you deep in my heart and know we will all come together again..Thank You Momma Foster for always Loving Me...Rest Peacefully, Love Francesca (Franny) Foster

“ It was my privilege to be the daughter of Barbara Foster. She was a beautiful woman both inside and out. She professed her love for Christ at an early age and she demonstrated that love by sharing Christ with her children, family members , friends and strangers. She was a loving, caring, generous woman who loved her family with all of her heart. She attended all of her children and grandchildren's graduations until her health began to fail her. She adored her 4 great grandsons, Quincy, Averey, Phoenix and Colbey. Family time was of the utmost importance. Birthday celebrations were a norm. Mom, her children and grandchildren all gathered together to celebrate one another's birthdays. We lived for OSU football and would gather together to watch the football games as a family unit. Mom taught us to love one another and to take care of one another. She and my father the late Mr. William James Foster, instilled in all of their children a strong work ethic and they taught us the art of forgiveness . For as far back as I can remember, I've spoken with my mother every day. My heart is so heavy because I've lost my confidante and best friend. I know that the Lord knows best but the pain I feel is nothing less than indescribable. The good news is that she's now with our Lord and Savior. No more being poked and prodded , no more needles, hospitals, insulin, blood transfusions, IV's, medicine etc. She's finally at peace. I would just imagine that at 10:57 pm Thursday night, our daddy greeted her with the biggest hug and kiss. They're together once again. Momma, thank you so much for the sacrifices that you made for us. Thank you for sharing the love of Christ with your children so that we may see you again on the other side. I love you more than words could ever say. Rest In Peace my beautiful precious Mother. Until we meet again, this is not goodbye, this is simply "I'll see you later." With all my love, your oldest daughter, Danita Elaine Foster-Ramsey.

*My mother was always there for me and my children I would call my mom and talk about everything I miss hearing from her and going to the store, beauty shop she was and will always be my best friend until I see you and my daddy at those heavenly gates again. Your baby girl
