

Mrs. Beulah M. Knight

January 18, 1930 - June 30, 2018

Mrs. Beulah C. Knight, (often called Momma Knight or MawMaw), joined our Heavenly Father on June 30, 2018. Mrs. Knight was extremely innovative and entrepreneurial minded. You might say "born before her time." She was the matriarch to so many and called each - her child. Mrs. Knight and her husband, were the first African American Poodle Groomers in Oklahoma. Added to her accolades of blessings, Mrs. Knight was a licensed cosmetologist. She also spent many years at Lucent Technologies. Momma Knight was the Assistant Superintendent of the St. John Missionary Baptist Church Nursery Department for 65 years. She would often say, "This was her joy and proudest honor from the Lord." Her constant advice to everyone she met was, "Put the Lord first and you can make it." She welcomed everyone into her "Life of Love and to the food on her table."

“ Mrs. Knight was truly a christian lady that love the Lord in all that she was connected with and all she did. A great love and concern for so many children. She touchd many generations.

She always had a great smile. Anna & family, God blessed you so much to have had your mother so long. She has gone to rest, but not from your heart.

With Sincere Sympathy,

Sherill Davis & Family

“ Mrs. Beulah Knight was my mother’s friend and schoolmate. I was childhood friends with her daughter Patricia before I knew that my mother knew Patricia’s mother. Growing up, Mrs. Knight always gave me good guidance for which I am thankful. My condolences are extended to Patricia, her sister and her brother. May God Bless and guide you all.

“ The Beulah Knight our prayers and condolences go out to you. Our family has known the Knight family for many years. Growing up in the neighborhood we had some wonderful experiences. Mrs. Knight was quite a woman and she loved people. She was such an active woman, always busy. If someone saw you in church and you had some red lip prints on your forehead, they knew it came from Mrs. Knight. She will truly be missed.
