“ This one is tough, honestly I don't know where to start. You were my favorite big cousin, I remember always wanting to be around you and be with you, hanging with the big kids. You always looked out for me and took me with you everywhere, kept me on game & honest with me even as a young buck. I hate that you had to go before I got back home but I know you're no longer suffering, despise everything you had going on, when it came to the family linking it was always a good time & nothing but good energy. Your beautiful soul will continue to be with me always, this is not a goodbye but more of a see you later. You will forever & always be my favorite big cousin! I love you sooo much 🍫👍👍

“ Britney Shalay Lambert... You were my big cousin but more like a big sister. I confided in you with so much over the years and you never once judged me for anything. We had so many first together and I will cherish all the memories we shared. Life is always the hardest for those that are left behind in this world but I know you are rejoicing! But we can also rejoice in the lord knowing he's holding you now! No more pain, suffering, or worrying! I ain't gone lie my heart is hurting but I know you're at peace and until I get there to see your beautiful face I will keep your name alive and you will continue to live on through the people who loved you the most. My Libra baby! My first cousin! I miss you sooooo much 💔💔💔💔🕊️🕊️🕊️

-Loving you always and forever, Your kale kale ☐

I’ll always love you bestfriend. You were my heart. I’ll never know another love like yours. I’ll always cherish our friendship and sweet memories. You’re my sweet Angel now.
