

Mr. Calvin L. Johnson Jr.

January 12, 1960 - April 24, 2018

Calvin was born to Opal Stafford Johnson and Calvin L. Johnson, Sr., in Oklahoma City, OK. He was the second of three children. Calvin, known as Junior by his family, attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and graduated from Classen High School in 1978. He confessed his faith in Christ at an early age and was baptized by Rev. V.H. McCowan at Union Baptist Church in South Town. Calvin joined St John Missionary Baptist Church as a youth and enjoyed touring with the youth choir., He had a quiet, gentle spirit and loved to share a little conversation and a laugh or two. He didn't draw a big crowd; he preferred more personal interactions with people. He worked for many years at the neighborhood grocery store on N.E. 23rd Street and Martin Luther King Avenue, where he loved greeting and helping people. He also worked at a cleaners and finally at Candlewood Suites until his health began to fail. Calvin's jovial and encouraging spirit will be missed,. His memory will be cherished by his son, Cantrell; his mother, Opal Johnson of Oklahoma City, OK; one sister, Marlena Norris (Phil) of Atlanta, GA; one brother, Keith Johnson of Oklahoma City, OK; and a host of relatives and friends. He was loved and adored by all who knew him.

“ I only met Calvin over two (2) years ago. I came to know him as a nice young man that was very helpful to us. He would sometimes help us to carry supplies from my car into the Northeast Resource Center Dining House. He seemed to enjoy helping us "ole ladies out" as well as joking with us. He always treated everyone with respect. Rest in Peace Calvin.

God Bless Your Family.
