“ Deaconess Carolyn Harris was my friend and sister in Christ. We supported each other with the diabetic experiences. I know she was a true warrior for The Lord and she absolutely faithfully worked until her day was done. May the peace of God be with the family.

Deaconess Harris you was a great friend, a person that was always down to earth. You always shared your love for Christ. Your gentle smile and humble hugs will always have an impacted place in my heart. Now if you do any baking up in heaven, tell the angel to save me some. Rest in Jesus arms my dear friend. I'll see you in the morning.
