“ I am so sorry that we could not be there for Chequita's memorial service. She was a sweet and amazing woman. She lived down the road from her, when our girls were growing up. Julia, Yvonne, and Mimi were at our house alot or our daughter, Melissa, was at her house. We both arose to the challenge and helped each other raise each other's girls. 😊 You will be truly missed Sister and I know that living with Jesus, there is peace forevermore.
