“ Mrs. Clark was a gracious and kindhearted lady. She consistently greeted others with a smile and encouraging words. A loving wife, mother, grandmother, and Christian servant, Mrs. Clark treated her children's friends with the same spirit and caring as she treated her family members. I recall that she was named as an "Outstanding Senior Citizen" by Central Oklahoma Chapter of Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc. She certainly deserved this honor and recognition because she served God, family, and community in a quiet, dignified, yet passionate manner. She "fought a good fight." Now, she is experiencing the glory and grandeur of being with her heavenly Father, husband, two daughters, and other deceased loved ones. RIP, Mrs. Clark.

“Mrs. Christine Clark was a coworker many years ago and remained a respected friend. I regret that it had been around 15 years since I had seen her. I was 19 years old when I went to work on the sales floor of the Baptist Bookstore in 1969, another coworker who has remained a friend was Mary Ray. Mary was 22 when she came to work at the bookstore in 1970, Mrs. Christine was the youngest person there prior to our arrival. I worked with her for just over three years Mary for several years longer. Mary is unable to post a comment/memory on here due to having eye surgery but wanted me to comment on her behalf as well as mine. We love Christine and have thought of her often, Mary is a member of FBC OKC where she had been talking with someone who was getting her contact information so we could plan a visit to Christine when we learned of her passing. Therefore I am now offering condolences to her family for both myself and Mary. Christine was one of the sweetest Christian women we had the joy to work with and to hear the stories of her family she loved so much. We know she is rejoicing in heaven with her Savior and her loved ones who have gone before and our thoughts and prayers are with her remaining family! May God's peace surround you!”

“Mrs. Christine L. Clark was such a kind humble soul. She exemplified the love of Christ by being caring and thoughtful toward her fellowman. She really "fought a good fight," and now, she has "finished her course." Now, she is glowing radiantly as she beholds her Heavenly Father's Face and joins her beloved husband, the late husband, two daughters, and other deceased loved-ones. Well Done - Mother Clark!”

“ Jesus wept.
I was sad when I first heard you were gone. But, I realize that the only reason to be sad is because you will be missed. Your life is to be celebrated with great HONOR! You have Crown's and Crown's of Glory waiting on you in Heaven because of your Loving Kindness. I will always Love you as you Loved me.
I pray for strength for the Family. This is a Great Loss!
