“ Anthony and Madeline Davis-Jones; We will forever remember Mrs. Clara E. Robinson for her shy yet firm warm heart mother who always made you feel loved, even in her latter years. It was and is an honor to have had Mother Robinson in our lives. We would like to share this poem with Sister Betty and Family. Smile Because She Lived[Author Unknown] ; You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of love that shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn back, or you can do what she would want: Smile, open your eyes, love and Smile Because She Lived. ❤️ 🙏

“ One of the many private moments I remember with my grandmother was at the age of 12. Sitting in the screen-in porch watching and talking about all the birds in the backyard and the many cats watching them.
