With heartfelt love and gratitude, we celebrate the life and legacy of our beloved matriarch,

Cora Ann Davis, who departed this life peacefully on July 23rd, at the age of 95.

Cora was born in Hope, Arkansas, to Lee Andrew and Ione Wilburn, and was the cherished sister among eight siblings. She grew up in a home filled with love, laughter, and strong family values—values that she carried with her throughout her life, becoming a shining example to everyone who knew her.

She was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life, L.V. Davis, and together they shared a beautiful journey filled with joy, travel, dancing, hosting family gatherings, and creating memories with their lifelong friends. Their love was a testament to the power of unity, partnership, and faith.

Cora had a deep passion for cooking, and her kitchen was always filled with the delicious aromas of her most treasured recipes. She loved to share her meals with family and friends, and her cooking became a way to bring people together, creating bonds that lasted a lifetime.

In addition to her culinary talents, Cora was an avid gardener. She found deep peace and joy in nurturing her vegetable garden, which flourished as a true reflection of the love, care, and dedication she poured into everything she touched. Her garden was a sanctuary where she cultivated fresh vegetables, and it became a place where memories were sown just as much as the seeds. Many who visited her home were not only awed by the vibrant harvest of her labor, but also had the privilege of tasting the fruits of her hard work, often shared with love around the family table.

Above all, Cora cherished the time spent with her family and friends. Whether it was hosting a family gathering, enjoying a quiet afternoon in the garden, or simply sharing a conversation over coffee, Cora's home was always a place of love and warmth. She was the heartbeat of her family, and her legacy of generosity, laughter, and kindness will forever bloom in our hearts.

She was the proud mother of two children: Brenda Steward and Zain Davis. Her legacy lives on through five grandchildren: LaTresa Steward, Embre' Steward (deceased), Keisha Davis-Peters, Kaichelle Bonner, and Byron Paige; eight great-grandchildren: Keion Steward, Dawnye' Batchelor, Jeremy Peters, Jade Peters, Jewelz Peters, Jacey Peters, Gabrielle Morris, and Zachary Morris; and five great-great-grandchildren: Kaliyah Aguilar-Steward, Aryana Steward, Blake Onyx Peters, Zain Williams, and Teyana Brigance. She is also survived by two siblings: Joyce Wilson and Hugh P. Wilburn; three sisters-in-law: Francis Johnson, Bessie Davis, and Mary Davis; one brother-in-law: Willie Davis; along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends who will cherish her memory. Cora was preceded in death by her beloved husband, L.V. Davis; son, Zain Davis, grandson Embre' Steward; sisters, Theona Jackson and Willie C. Wilburn Foreman; and brothers, Gregory Wilburn, Nathaniel "Boy" Wilburn, and Willis Lee "Bross" Wilburn. Though she has left this earthly home, her memory lives on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

(Church Archives & Library) Ministry*

To the family of Sister Cora Ann Wilburn Davis:

We the members of the Reverend E.J. Perry Media Center Ministry (Church Archives & Library) extend to you our sincere condolences, love, and prayers. We are thankful to our Heavenly Father for having known Sister Davis. Sister Davis and her family have been members of Tabernacle for over 70 years, from the old Tabernacle at 515 N.E. 3rd Street at Byers Avenue under Reverend E.W. Perry and Reverend E.J. Perry to the present edifice at 1829 N.E. 36th Street. Precious memories of her mother Sister Ione Wesley Wilburn and her grandmother Sister Nobie C. Wesley, as well as the many other beloved family members who were faithful servants at Tabernacle. We will cherish the beautiful memories of Sister Davis and her family and remember their dedication to our congregation. May God Bless and Keep You is Our Prayer!

I already missed when she left Oklahoma, but knowing that she's gone for good eternally, I really miss her. I would've never guessed in 1 million years that she was 95 years old. She was always so beautiful to be absent from the body has to be present with a lower. I know that's where she is. Rest in peace, my sweet, beautiful auntie you always reminded me of Lucille Ball. ❤️❤️
