“ I'll bet those girls at Globe Life never saw our friendship coming when they sent me to ask you a dumb question. I'll bet they regretted it just a little too. Love you so much, Nina, and while I am so sad that you are gone, I rejoice in the fact that your body is healed. I will miss you my friend. Cherica

“ OH WOW! My Davina I miss you so much but I am trying to hold it together. I understand I could NOT have you forever. My heart is so heavy but knowing you suffer no longer makes it a little lighter. God allowed us to spend some time together before he called you home, for that I Thank Him. Rest easy baby girl. LOVE YOU ALWAYS!

“ God could not have given wings to a better lifetime friend. 45+ years is a long time to call someone friend and have the friendship and relationship we had. I am going to miss you so much. I feel like a part of my heart has been taken away. There are a lot of memories for me to hold onto-we did a lot of things, not always on the good side. But we survived them together. Some of our best fun times had your momma almost kicking us out of girl scouts. That long conversation we had on August 17th will be forever in my heart. God could not have put me in a better space than to be friends with you. The drive to work just wont be the same without you on the other end of the phone. Use those beautiful wings and that shiny halo to fly through the Heavens. I'm sure Joanna and David welcomed you with open arms. Davina, until we meet again take care. I love you.

“ Oh how I smile of the many memories over the past 15 years since we met at OHCA. You were not only my trainer, mentor but a great friend! Love thinking of the days we shared an office & oh how I made fun of your chaotic organization, you showed me you knew exactly where things were. You always were there to teach me how to live through work issues & family issues. Thank you for introducing me to your cantaloupe pie & freshly picked poke salad. I always looked forward to your family reunions & many pics. Rest In Peace my friend you will be missed. There is much comfort that you are with Jesus & pain free. David & family, you are in my prayers & she loved you more than anything!!
