“ We had the pleasure of camping with Tyrone and Denise over 10 years. Our most memorable trip just occurred two days before she transitioned. We were sitting together at a pickleball court talking about various topics. It was revealed that Denise and Tyrone knew how to play Bid whist a game that Andretta and I enjoyed also, but in 10 years of camping with them we did not know they played. Denise said we should get together and play a game or two and she asked me, when would be a good time? I said "let's not put off to tomorrow what can be done today". Denise pick up her phone and called Tyrone and they came to our rig that evening. Denise and Tyrone were in good spirits and full of laughs I won't say the results of the game but it was fun. I truly believe Denise is at peace and with the large amount of people that know and care about Tyrone he will be good also. Thoughts and prayers for the Pendleton. Sitnotra and Andretta.

I met Tyrone and Denise over 15 years ago through the NAARVA, (RV Association). Denise was a very special person, always willing to help wherever needed. She and Tyrone were chartering members of the Oklahoma Tornados Rv Club. I will never forget her kindness towards me. She would always share her baked goods and while eating them we would sit and chat about anything. She was very genuine. I certainly will miss seeing them together at RV Rallies. I will continue to pray for Tyrone and family. Yours in Christ, Myrtle Mayfield

“What can one say about the gift God gave to our family, like Denise? She was to me everything a brother would hope for in a “little sister.” Every brother should have a sister like her. They don’t make them like they used to. During my lifetime, there have been five people who had a direct impact on shaping me into the man I am today. They were my mother, aunt Odessa, my wife Yvonne, Denise, and my grandfather. I guess you could say I was lucky. I believe it is God who provided me with those five gifts to last a lifetime. I love them so much. Denise, thank you for all the joy you continue to give me. Ray
