“ We used to take Donny Ray to the OBHC back to school show every year held in Norman. He would have us laughing all the way down there with his different stories. He also sent numerous prayer grams while I was ill and all brought a smile and laugh to me. We had many discussions about my cornbread. He said it never turned out right when he made it. Thought I'd omitted some ingredient. We will miss him greatly, both personally and as one of our church family. Lynn and Debbie Langston

“ Donnie Ray lit up any room he walked into. He was a special person who left us too soon, but will be remembered for his sense of humor and Christian love.

“ Such a shock to know that Donny Ray has left this earthly world, but we know that he has gone to Heaven to be with God. We loved Donny Ray. He was a very unique person and had a way with words making them come alive as he wrote prayergrams to a lot of shut ins from our Church and to many friends who needed encouragement at times of illness or going through bad times. Donny Ray was a Christian and showed this with enthusiasm to everyone he met. We enjoyed knowing Donny Ray and will certainly miss him. We pray for his family.
