“ Sincere condolences, sympathies and prayers to the family of Brother Donald Ponds. I thank God that we were able to fellowship as co-workers in Bldg 200 before we retired From the “Big Bomber Plant” Tinker A.F.B. Surely without a doubt Brother Donald is resting with Jesus now. “ I met Donald while I was working at Tinker. He was the kindest person I ever met out there. I met him after the fire of '84. I was on graveyard and he was on days. I was using the machine he used during the day. My bosses wanted me to thank him so much for him allowing me to use his machine. We both laughed because he said I don't care about this machine. They act like you are coming into my living room. He was a dear friend and also he knew and worked with my dad years before I got there. Then fairly recently with the last couple of years or so I found out that he knows my brother in law. I left Tinker years ago but never forgot about him and still think of him often.. Greg Shaw

“ Daddy Ponds,

I will miss you until we meet again in heaven. Thank you for raising the most incredible son, Donald Lamont. He learned how to be a gentle and loyal husband and a loving and invested father from the very best, you.

Thank you for loving me and accepting me as your daughter over the past 16 years and for all the joy filled memories from family holidays to beach vacations. I always enjoyed the simple things in life with you like when you would quietly march in the kitchen and tell us how we should be cooking or seasoning the cast iron or just enjoying our back yard campfire with us after watching Bobby Flay on Food Network during summertime.

I will continue to see you every single day in our children. When I look at the handsome face that looks like yours as a boy of our Jeremiah Donald. When he shows his athleticism, I will remember that was passed down from you. When I see sweet Norah Joy show her "Pa Pa" expressions we will remember you and when she beautifully adorns her gorgeous hair with bows, I will remember that was passed down from you as well.

We keep Daddy and Pa Pa's love safe in our hearts forever. Your "still waters that run deep" will remind our family to be thoughtful and Godly with our words, actions, and opinions. Here is the verse we think is perfect for you because your heart was definitely made of gold. We will miss you so indescribably much and thank God for His blessed assurance.

*As in water face reflects face, so the heart of a man reflect the man.
Proverbs 27:19*

*I love you,
Your Daughter

“ Geesh. In the 5th grade, I decided to walk home with Devon so I wouldn't get lost. Little did I know, I wouldn't just gain a friend but I'd gain an extra family. Mr. Ponds treated me as though as I was his daughter too. I was always there. :) During this difficult time, I offer my deepest sympathies and pray the Lord gives you all strength. Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.
