“Doris was a beautiful lady. She was not just beautiful on the outside but on the inside as well. Her heart was pure! “Absent from the body, present with The Lord.” My heart felt condolences to the entire family....

“We the members of the Lucy Addison Class of 1969 from Roanoke, Va offer our prayers as you celebrate the life of Doris. She was two years ahead of us but her sister Ruth is our classmate. We grew up in a segregated time so everyone knew everyone. We played together as well as partied at the same places! But the God we serve has a way of getting us in some parties that never end! He also has planned a great party that Doris got an invite to. The party is so great, we search for our invitation daily. One day.....

“Sis Simms was such a loving dedicated woman. I can't remember when my mom had major surgery and she came up more than once to spend time with her, once she even took an overnight shift from us. She was a wonderful addition to our family dinners being just like one of us. She was appreciated and will be missed, but God loved her best.

I am so sorry to hear the going home of Doris. She was a very good person. She was a real good friend with my friend Betty. Now she will be able to see Betty in Heaven. May God be with the family during this time.

Wishing the family of Doris Simms thoughts and prayers during this difficult transition period. On leap day of last year, it was a good talking with Doris during the 1st cousins' group conference call. May God continue to provide guidance for our paths...
