“ *Uncle Perry lived his life by example. My sister, brother and I moved in with his father, mother and him when he was 18 years old. Shortly after that he entered the military and was a military policeman.
When he returned home, he bought Mama some appliances and later some new furniture. A few years later he purchased her a new house. He was always loving and kind to us. When Mama became terminally ill, he moved to Boley to take care of her. Uncle Perry was an exceptional Son, Uncle and Person. We send our love to Aunt Colleen and his children. Ray and Sandra Penn*
