“ To the Mother of my nephew Deno. We loved you here but God loved you more. God saw that the road was getting rough, so He called you home to be with Him. Rest In Peace In Heaven. Love 💕

*To my very dear sister so glad God lead me back to Oklahoma and you reached out to me and we spent alot of time talking about the lord and his saving grace and his blessings of forgiveness and how you were prepared to meet him and how i witnessed you reading his Holy Bible and we prayed and shared about our children and grandchildren serving God and we both rejoiced about our relationship with Christ on ever occasion and how this world is not our home.And how everyday we have to leave ready to meet our lord and savior. Now here you are rejoicing in the throne room next to our savior Jesus Christ and you are in no more pain and sorrow you're rejoicing with the angels 🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌
Rest my sister til we meet again We shall know we have eternal Life and well done thy good and faithful servant 🙌🙌🙌🙌 I will miss Christmas decorating for you! Love you Earlene !family rest in God.Knowing We all shall meet him again on the day h call us 🙏🙏*
