I knew G.G. all the way back to our days at Harding Jr. High in 1972 as 7th graders until we graduated together at NEHS in the Class of 1977. I'll always remember his big and constant smile and how funny and friendly he was. Just looked at my last yearbook to confirm that he was voted as Best Sense Of Humor in our senior year. So sad for your/our loss, but know he's in a better place making them smile as well. God bless.
