“ Mrs. Liz, a beautiful soul, always greeted me and my family with a warm smile and a kind word. Her impact on us and the community will forever be remembered. She will be cherished for the positive changes she brought to the lives of the people/students that had the pleasure of knowing her. May God be with the family and friends that will continue to care on her legacy. We love you, Mrs. Liz.

TRUE VINE CADETS!

Those words will forever echo in our hearts. From my sisters down to my children, we still stand at attention when we hear them—because that’s what you taught us. You taught us discipline, pride, strength, and unity.

It truly takes a village, and you were a cornerstone of ours. You poured into my family with love, guidance, and unwavering commitment. You didn’t just lead—you shaped lives. You left an imprint on generations.

The Lord has called you home now, and I can only imagine heaven standing a little straighter with you there, still keeping everyone in line.

Thank you for your sacrifice, your leadership, and your love. We will carry your legacy forward.

*I love you.
Rest peacefully.*

Such a beautiful lady with a beautiful soul. I remember working with her daughter , katrina with dancers , and she showed up with a paid and pencil watching the dancers and see what they needed to work on. She did not play, she studied every move she Made me nervous. Rest beautiful angel in Jesus arms. Sharon Jackson. ❤️

Commander Adams AKA Liz.. I remember at the old True Vine when she asked me to join her to work with the youth. Which was the True Vine Boot Camp. We did that for many many years. It was tough but worth it. I wouldn't have asked for a better leader. She was a force and yet soft spoken. We had many laughs, cries, and so much love we shared. Now may she rest in God's loving arms. Prayers and Strengthen for the family.

Liz was one of the most pure and honest person I've had the pleasure of being associated with. She always had a kind word and she was a great Commander of Boot Camp. She loved those kids. They were her babies. She was a good friend to me and often gave me sound advice. She is now with John, her beloved and still looking down on us. She loved her family. I'm proud to have known her. She will be missed. Condolences to the family.

“ Sending you all love and prayers during this time. 💜🙏
Mrs. Adams was truly a God-sent angel in my life. Over 30 years ago, her voice became a guide for me—still reminding me to think before acting and to move with wisdom and purpose.

Her impact never faded, and her love will always live on in my heart. You will be truly missed, but never forgotten. 🕊️✨ Nicole Campbell

“ Liz is one of my best friends. She was so kind, sweet, and encouraging to me. A Godly woman, who I looked up to. She was a phenomenal leader in our Operation Truth Bootcamp. I learned so much from her. Liz will truly be missed, but always in my heart. Rest well in the arms of Jesus my sister.

“ Well Cuz as Liz would call me. She was a beautiful soul and a very stern commander over her boot camps. She would always ask if I would help her out in the graduation ceremonies. She will be missed. She is safe in the arms of Almighty GOD. I pray that GOD will comfort and give strength to the family during this difficult time. May GOD's peace surround you all.

“ There really aren't words sufficient to say what Commander Adams (how I'll always remember her) meant to us. What a God to have blessed us with a such a woman in our youth; so sweet, yet stern when necessary . . . and we were the better for it. Praying comfort for all the family. Much love. 💖

“ Rest in peace to a true pillar of True Vine Missionary Baptist Church. Mrs. Adams was more than a church leader; she was a mother in the faith, a teacher, and a living example of Christ’s love.

As a proud member of the True Vine Cadets For Christ, I learned discipline, dedication, and what it truly meant to serve God with excellence. Those lessons didn’t just come from drills or instruction; they came from the love, patience, and nurturing spirit that Mrs. Adams poured into us. She helped raise me in the church, and those seeds she planted have followed me throughout my life.

Her guidance, prayers, and unwavering commitment to God’s people will never be forgotten. Heaven has truly gained a beautiful soul, and earth has lost a mighty servant.

Thank you, Mrs. Adams, for loving us, shaping us, and showing us the way. Your legacy lives on through every life you touched. 🕊️❤️

“ After joining TrueVine Liz was one of the first people that made me & my family feel like we were part of the TrueVine Family. It was my pleasure to work with the TrueVine Cadets under her leadership as well. I never saw her angry or raise her voice. She was a force to be reckoned with during BootCamp, especially the 1st week. I remember her telling me " the first week will be tough, but you have to be tough. She said the 2nd week we ease up on the Cadets, by the time they graduate they will be all over you like bees drawn to honey".I can truly say she was right. That was an experience I will always be grateful for. Thank you Liz for you being you. You will always hold a very special place in my heart. Rest in God's loving arms, well done good and faithful servant.

“ Liz will always be remembered as being beautiful but she was also remembered as leading, Do You Know the Man, and I'm Your Child. Liz is God's child that knows The Man. Praying that God gives you all the strength and peace you need. Love you all.

I met "Liz" in the early 90's when was serving at True Vine Independent Baptist Church. She was a mixture of humility and boldness. When I started serving at True Vine, our offices were next to each other. We had a great working relationship. I would joke about her big brown Texas eyes because she was from Tyler, TX. Being from the same state, our friendship had a special bond. I was like a big brother to her. We also worked together with the True Vine Boot Camp for three summers. She was the General Commander, and I was the Commander of Education. When she left True Vine and joined St. John Baptist Church, she kept the camp going which, I understand, outgrew its previous size at True Vine.

She has left a very good legacy and now worshipping in the presence of her Lord.

I can imagine many who have gone before her giving her a big hug upon her arrival, but the biggest hug is given by Jesus. Praise God for her life as a testimony to His love and power. Bruce A. Proctor

*On behalf of the Carbajal Family,
We would like to express our deepest and sincere condolences.*

We will miss our dear friend but God knows best always. God lent her to us for this short while then when her duty was done God, HE came to gather her home.

Rest in peace my beloved friend and may you rest in the realm of disembodied spirits resting assure that you will receive your blessed heavenly home. May those who have gone before you welcome you into the pearly gates of your final destination.

Peace and prayers to the family, especially your children in this difficult time of grief and sorrow.

Call upon us should you need us even if it s for a moment to help you feel safe to carry on!

Before the famous True Vine Bootcamp, there was the True Vine Day Care Center! I go that far back to the years (1980s) when she and Ms. Barbara Hill loved and nurtured my children. They got the very best care, pre-school education and religious training. We loved her (and her Mother Florine Bowler and her sister) so very much. She will forever hold a loving place in my family's heart. She was the best of the best in everything she did. Sending love and prayers to Stevie and all her family.
