“ To the Kemp Family,
Elmer was a personal friend to me and my family. He was a very kind person and had a generous heart. He was an astute businessman and knew how to meet and greet all individuals. His legacy will live on in the lives of many. Oklahoma City has lost another outstanding citizen and a giant of a man. He is absent from the body but presence with the Lord. Our love and prayers is with your families.

“ Elmer Kemp Family,

Deepest condolences—Elmer was a stalwart in the community. He was very engaging, had an infectious smile, was a trusted friend and the consummate historian for both Wewoka and OKC. Thank you for sharing Elmer with so many—he will always live in our memories.

Wewoka, Oklahoma is a small town that HAS produced many bigger than life individuals and Elmer Kemp ranks among the top on that list. Everyone from that community certainly knew him or new of him. Oklahoma City and much of the rest of the United States can make that very same claim. He is a personal friend of mine and a long time friend of three generations of my family. I enjoyed healthy debates and points of view with Elmer and shall always cherish memories of this great man. Rest in heaven my brother and peace be with the Kemp family.
