“Some people didn’t know that Sis. Brown’s and I had a few things in common.

First, our love for the LORD.

Scripture says in Titus 2:3-5

“Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good, so that they may instruct the young women in sensibility: to love their husbands, to love their children, to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be slandered.”

Titus 2:3-5 LSB

Also Galatians 5:22-23

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such things there is no law.”

Galatians 5:22-23 LSB

These two scriptures was the epitome of Sis.Brown’s godly character.

Along as I have known her, she always encouraged the women of ELBC to develop these godly qualities. She was a patient, kind and gentle woman even as taught the young women to love the husbands and to each other.

I can remember hearing always asking some sister in Christ “ Did You cook for your husband today?”. Many of us can testify of her straight forwardness when she asked questions. Sometimes she would just sat there shaking her head.

Secondly

We shared the same birthday. December 11th

Boy, I had fun with this one. I would always wish her a happy birthday but if it fell on a Sunday, I would wait till a crowd of people were around her the wish her a happy birthday. She would give me the LOOK! Some of you know what I'm taking about.

Every time I would ask her her age, I would get one of three answers.

- 1. None of your business, then I would say birthdays are a blessing!*
- 2. She would sometimes say, "ask Kay or Fay".*
- 3. Or 25 years old. Then she would say "Don't ask us who old we are. Then I would say again, " birthdays are a blessing".*

Sis love Alana and Alisa, always praying they would become godly fearing ladies.

She will be missed, but her legacy will live on.

“ Mrs Brown was truly an inspiration to me at Edward’s Redeemer Nursing Center. I was the Certified Dietary Manager, when I decided to go to school to become a LTC Administrator, she was very encouraging. She openly shared her wisdom, experience and knowledge, all of which were invaluable to me throughout my career. I will cherish my memories of her always. I’d like to extend my heartfelt condolences to Kay and Fay. May God Bless and Keep You ❤️, Bonita
