“ I remember Christmas in Altus, Oklahoma my auntie would put the Christmas bows on me, Damon, and Brandon for head and tell us we were the best gifts ever... She was my fave.. I could always count her to call me on her birthday no matter where I was. Auntie I love you and i know your in a better place... Kiss daddy and grandma..

My sympathies go out to Eula's family. We grew up together and although we didn't hang out together I remember her as a nice & friendly person. You will never be forgotten Benson street girl. See you later.
