“ Sending love and prayers to Eva's family. Eva was a very kind and loving person to me. I worked with her for many years and enjoyed the talks that we had and the laughter we shared. When my parents were sick and I had to care for them, unbeknownst to me, Eva donated leave to me so I could spend time with my ailing parents. We (my best friend, Rick, and I) had many laughs with Eva and I enjoyed dinner with her at Abel's Mexican Restaurant. When she retired, it was a honor when she asked Rick, Connie and I to have a little retirement dinner with her. I will forever be grateful to her for her kindness. My condolences to her family for their loss.

“ I worked with Eva for many years. During her last years before retirement she brought such a sense of humor to some challenging times at the office. She loved to share about and was so proud of her grandson, Armon. I have fond memories of our after-work dinners we had at Abel's Mexican Restaurant where Eva had me laughing so hard my stomach hurt. After I retired, regrettably, I lost touch with her. My best friend, Danny Yancey (who Eva also worked with and knew) and I, spoke often of her. My deepest condolences to her family for their loss.
