“ I got used to seeing Felix's posts on FB and now it's so strange not to see him posting! He was always so hopeful, grateful and optimistic. Really a good man! I graduated SSHS with his brother David but never met Felix. He will truly be missed. God was needing his goodness up in Heaven!

“ met Flea back in the days of working for (TSR) great WIT!, sharp mind, always encouraging & optimistic, shared so much wisdom and insight with me, being a young father starting out in life ' he always reminded me... "love them babies". . he could also hold a decent tune, although he was better on instruments ... I would joke with him often about the credit commercial " we say yes, yes you're approved"....still can hear him singing...but most of all. he loved his wife & family....I know because that's what he mostly talked about. rest well bro.

“ I met Flea on Facebook about ten years ago. He always had great things to say: wisdom, anecdotes, and things to make you laugh. I loved reading about Thor, the Wonder Dog, Radio, and his wife, Michele. He will be missed.

“ My words are few, as Flea was the wordsmith of the Whale and Flea. I feel a deep sense of loss that time will only make tolerable, but never erase the closeness I had with Felix (Paulie) Paul Linden Sr.
