“ My heart is heavy and still cannot process the fact that you've been called home..God wrap your arms around the entire Willis family my condolences 🙏. Frank had a heart of gold just like the rest of his brother's, he would give the shirt off his back to help his family. Frank was a trendsetter, from his GQ look to his car show decked out rides (custom escalade truck on floaters to his air ride on his busa) I'll never forget you or that laugh, you always made everyone laugh. Until I see you on the golden streets again rest in peace bro!

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

“ Man oh man, Unlce Frank you left a hole in a lot of people hearts with this one. If I ever had to answer the question of what man played a big influence on who I am today it would be you. I’ll never forget when you said neph sometimes in life as a Man you just do what you have to do whether good or bad, whether you want to or not; so you can do what you really want to do. Might not make sense now but it will later. I can finally say after all the years it finally makes sense.

“Words can never express the sadness I feel. A man who loved and took care of his family. A man who put everyone before himself. A man, a son, a husband, a brother, a father, a grandfather, a cousin, a nephew, an uncle and a friend to many. A man who put a capital “S” in the word Strength. A man who Stood tall when we thought he Should be down. A man who loved the Lord. A man who never meet a Stranger. Frank, you were that Man. You were my friend. I am going to miss you friend. I can still hear your voice clearly saying “Come on Home!! Come on Home!!”

Sending my love to you all Joyce, Devin and Domonick !

“ Im extremely saddened with a heavy heavy heart and i like all of you will miss my friend/my brother Frank (WheelieKing) Willis. That chuckle/giggling laugh coupled with a smile seems to have always lit up and brightened the atmosphere. His big heart for others before himself defined him. He was always willing to give, willing to forget, willing to help with no string attached. That was my friends heart. For those who knew of him but did really get a chance to know the person, i must say you really missed a treat. For he was truly someone special. Im so so glad Frank Joyce my wife and I got to reconnect this year after so many years apart. We shared and laughed about all the old memories of when we were younger(in our 20's and 30's) Most importantly we got a chance to tell one another that we "Love you"

Joyce

You will forever be a sister to me. You defined how a woman (a lady) she stand by there man. Not behind him but truly beside him, and you done it sis!! through all the highs and the lows of life for 38 great years. And i truly salute you Joyce. Leslie and i Love you and our condolences to the Willis family.

Words can not express the hurt that I feel at the thought of you not being here anymore. You know I'm NEVER at a loss for words but this loss is something that I NEVER wanted to have to find the words for. I called you Uncle Freezy because of your Cool demeanor. You stayed Calm & Cool under any situation that was thrown at you. At times a lil to cool for my Aunt J but you always managed to COOL her down too. Thank you for loving my Aunt J the way only you could have & showing us how it was supposed to be done. Thank you for being there for me & mine over the years. I'll cherish our talks about any & every subject that came out my mouth at the time. I'll always admire the way you loved the Hishaw Family unconditionally. Thank you for being that Never Changing figure in our lives.

I remember when we all went to the Y and as we were waiting outside, someone in a car drove by and hollered something. We all looked and Angie said “that’s deep” Frank said that’s who and Angie said again “that’s deep”. Frank said and I quote “ What kind of name is that? Who would name their child deep? “ I don't even know where to begin. I'm at a loss for words because I never could have imagined that I would have to say anything in memory when it comes to you. First and foremost I love and miss you so much. We had our differences, often even clashed and bumped heads but none of that compares to how much I loved you and I'll do anything to be able to get all of that back. Not to sound cliché but you were truly my superhero and as much as I hate to accept it, it's time for you to trade in your cape for a set of wings. It hurts me to even have to type all of this and it angers me that I even have to, but I realize now how much you were hurting and I hate how you hid that from us just to continue to be the superhero and protector that we've always known you to be. Now it's time to be there for you how you've always been there for us. I'm so sorry how it may have seemed that I took you for granted when you were here, but I'll never take the memories I shared with you for granted because unfortunately that's all that I have left. That's a promise I intend to keep. You will forever be missed and you will never be forgotten. I know that I'll see you again, just wait for me. I love you dad, you were undeniably the greatest father I could ever ask for.
