

Mr. Fredrick Lewis Brown

February 16, 1980 - October 11, 2023

Frederick Lewis Brown was born to Carol and Eddie Brown on February 16, 1980 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. On the wings of angels, Fred ascended to heaven on October 11, 2023. Fred is survived by his son, Geordin Lee Isaiah Brown, Geordin's mother Ekanem McFarthing, his parents Carol Parker, Eddie Brown, and Wendall Parker, his siblings Courtney Brown, Eddia Brown, Winfield Brown (Jasmin Brown), and Wendall Parker Jr., and many nephews, nieces, and cousins. He was baptized at a young age, committing his life to Christ.

While growing up, Fred enjoyed playing sports. He was outstanding in football and baseball. Fred also challenged himself intuitively by excelling in chess, creative writing, poetry, and composing music; a gifted and thoughtful young man with many talents and accomplishments.

After graduating from Putnam City North High School, Fred began to utilize the unique and God-given talents he had, both tangible and intangible.

Fred worked in flooring and restoration, achieving the pinnacle of his hard work and ambition by owning his own business. His work was impeccable and highly thought of by all those that worked with him. He took tremendous pride in his work. It had to be perfect; a testament to his character.

As a creative writer and composer of music and poetry, Fred added creative dancing and performing. He accomplished a personal milestone by recording a CD of original compositions.

There was literally nothing Fred could not do . . .

There are things an obituary can never properly convey.

Fred truly possessed a heart of gold. His servant heart was on display every day of his life.

Fred expressed that above all of the accomplishments he achieved, his son, Geordin Lee Isaiah Brown, will always be the highlight of his existence

And Fred LOVED cake!!

“ Fred, it's been a little while. Thank you for your unconditional love, no questions asked. You will be dearly missed.

"Love is not love

Which alters when it alteration finds,

Or bends with the remover to remove:

O, no! it is an ever-fixed mark," - Shakespeare, Sonnet 116

“ Fred, I cherish the memories of our childhood: all of together, during those hot Oklahoma summers, having the time of our lives. I'm so sad that we won't have another road trip or get together, but I find comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering.

“ My heart is in pain, I begged God to let you stay. The Lord knows better than we do, God said to me “I called for my son he was only borrowed to you”. I then realized I had to wipe my eyes and thank the Lord that I got to be in your life. You are full of so much love, you will always be in my heart until we meet in the heavens up above! I love you Fred!!!!
