“ Baby I've been with you for 48 years, some of the best years of my life. When you first got sick we said we will get through this together, little did we know it would be this rough, but you fought as hard as you could and I am so proud of you, you begged me to let you go and when I did God call you home. What will I do and how will I live without you? God got this and I know he will get me and the kids through this, I love you and I will see you in the morning. Love your wife Nan❤️
