“ Condolences to the Doakes and Denson families. Glenda was a bright and shining light every time I saw her. She was kind, cheerful, and I never saw her display bitterness toward anyone, which is rare these days. May her sweet spirit live on in the lives of her family and friends. She will never be forgotten.

“ Glenda was my cousin, she was truly a cousin of mine, it's been a while since I seen her, the last time was at my house in 2018, after our aunt Elvira funeral, she always showed love in respect to her family, she always attended funerals of her family, no matter how long she had to travel to attend, I didn't see her that much, but she always tried to get together when I would come back home, she was truly one of a kind, we grew up together, I still remember the times that they would travel from the city to Beggs in would spend the night with us, miss those days, long time ago, but never forgotten.

I was blessed to spend the weekend with Glenda and her beautiful daughter Jewel in September of last year. They came to St. Louis to watch one of their favorite comedians. I met with them at Union Station and we went to the aquarium and had lunch and had a great time. Glenda was always such a classy, articulate and a very thoughtful lady who will be solely missed. May God continue to bless her children, grandchildren and extended family.

Glenda lit up my classroom at Star Spencer. She carried that same light into the world as she entered adult life. Whenever she contacted me, I knew she had something for me to do because her laughter was the clue that she was up to something. I thank God for allowing her to shine some of her light into my life.
