“ To family of Bro. Herman Murray. We are so sorry to hear of his passing. He was a loyal and active member of St. John for many years. He was also in the St. John East Congregation. Those who attend St. John know that was a special group of men seating at their special table. Most of them are gone but I know they are having their services up in heaven. Our prayers go out the family.

Hands and my father Willie Fields Sr. were like brother, they worked together and they were always there in need. We called him Uncle Hands, because he was always there. He's in heaven with all of his buddies having fun! Have comfort knowing he is at his heavenly rest. Sherill Fields, Linda Fields & Willie L. Fields Jr.

Prayers to the Murray family. Hands has been in our life's since we were very young. He not only work with both our parents, Carl and Cresaline's but he was a member of The Grail Club with our dad. Hands spent a many of Sunday nights playing dominoes and smoking cigars until early Monday morning while we were growing up. Rest easy and peacefully. Jerold, Gomalia and Lenora 'Red'.
