“ I worked with Miss Ivy for several years and she was one of my favorites! I'll always remember her vast assortment of earrings and her kind, loving smile! She was a sweet, beautiful lady, inside and out, and a woman of deep Christian faith. I'll never forget that one day at work, a coworker and I were sitting down, talking about God. Miss Ivy came up and heard the topic of our conversation and she broke in with, "Can't NOBODY tell me God ain't good!!!" And then she sat down and shared her testimony of how God had blessed her when she was a young mother and how He sustained her. Her testimony was a real blessing to me!

“ Family, I extend my deepest sympathies during the homegoing of Linda. We all grew up as sisters and brothers in Lima. Our families shared good times, as well, as some bad, but, we all stood together whatever the circumstances. I continue to pray for God to embrace you with peace, love, and comfort. We love you all, forever.
