I worked with Jackie when she worked for the Navy. She always had a good attitude and was a joy to be around. I found later that I knew her when she was a teenager, I was a little younger but knew her well. She grew up in Luther and I grew up in Arcadia. My cousin actually dated her and she and I laughed often about that. I was not only in shock but sadden by her departure. God has a beautiful spirit in His midst. My prayers to her daughters and entire family.
