“ I remember James being so approachable and I'm so proud that I could call him my cousin. His laugh and his smile I will never forget. He was a great example of a man willing to serve his family and the community. I just loved to walk in church and hear his beautiful organ playing. He will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love,
Mary (Eddens) Larrinaga

“ Celebrating the life of our beloved cousin, and another of the great mentor and role model to us younger men in the family. Our hearts are saddened, but only because the loss is to those of us who he has left here in this world. Our spirits celebrate a life lived faithful to our Lord. Thank you cousin James for the many joy filled memories and great lessons that always pointed us back to our Heavenly Father. - Michael Eddens
