“ I remember us playing in the street together, going to kindergarten together, and middle school, and high school . She was the first friend that i had when my family moved to "Musgrave". She was a "TRUE FRIEND.' I miss her dearly. My deepest most sincere prayers are going up to for her family members. She was a "Jewel among precious stones." May God Bless all of you

“ I was blessed to work with 'J' at McBride Orthopedic Hospital. I enjoyed every minute spent with J - she was no-nonsense with a work ethic like no other. I loved our quick visits at work. She was special. I will be praying for her loved ones in the days ahead. May the Lord lift up all who have suffered such an incredible loss.
