“ When love reaches through the shadows, whispering your name, nothing will ever be the same again. Because when love calls U home, forgiveness embraces the past U once owned, and all the mistakes that carried your name, are gone. His grace and mercy are true, you've fought the good fight and you've run the race. Now rest in His eternal peace. Forever and ever.

“ My condolences to the Reed family. I was raised in Fairview Baptist Church, and even after relocating to Chicago as an adult, Fairview was my home church and Rev. Reed was my pastor. I remember when Rev. S.S. Fairly brought him into the fold. Rev. Reed was a young, dynamic assistant to Rev. Fairly. For many years, Rev. Reed had delivered the invocation at Langston University's President's Scholarship Gala. He will be sincerely missed this October.

“ The the family of Pastor John A. Reed: Reverend Reed and BLAC, Inc. collaborated on a number of community projects that always had great outcomes. For example, BLAC, Inc. (was advised by many to not do it because it would be difficult and the organization could not benefit ) joined in with the National Baptist Convention in Oklahoma City to become a vendor. I gave Rev. Reed and his office my request with the appropriate fees for participation. Pastor Reed did his survey and checked to see if I was satisfied. I was and the benefits came to us with so many other added bonuses and blessings that continue to this day...locally and nationally. That partnership stands as what God can do when action is taken to benefit the community and those who Believe. God has your back. Be comforted in the fact that God does not make mistakes...and Pastor Reed is in GOOD hands. R.I.P Pastor Reed and family Be of Good Cheer!

“ I rise to Thank God and Honor the life of Rev. Dr. John Reed, Jr. whom I have known all of my life. John and I were "PK's" and our father's the Late Rev, John Sr. and Morris A. Curry, Sr. were great friends and ministered together in National and State Baptist conventions and they swapped pulpits hundres of times with each other during their Pastorate. It is hard to say an earthly good bye, but one day there will be a Heavenly Hello as we meet again at the feet of our Lord and Saviour Jesus the Christ. Thank you my brother for your service to the Lord and to His people. "
And when the Chief Shepard appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away" 1 Peter 5:4
