“ I want to wish my deepest sympathy to you and your family; when a family member passes on it is difficult. Time seems to stand still. My prayers are with you. Having said that, I recently stumble on Johnnie P. Stevenson’s book The Lynching of Laura.

Let me do a formal introduction. I’m Bruce Nelson, an independent filmmaker and the grandnephew of Laura Nelson currently developing, Looking For Laura Nelson, a documentary on the lynching of my Aunt Laura Nelson and my cousin, L.D. Nelson in 1911.

I just purchased a copy of The Lynching of Laura. If there are any family members of Johnnie P. Stevenson checking this sight. I would be interested in having a conversation about the book. I can be reached through the website or this email address: nebproductions1@gmail.com

Best regards,

“ Mrs. Johnnie Stevenson epitomized sophistication, intelligence, and class in both her verbal and nonverbal demeanor. She was greatly admired by her Dunjee English and Speech students as well as her Rogers Middle School English students. If ever one needed to know the appropriate pronunciation and enunciation of words, then Mrs. Stevenson was indeed the teacher who served as a role model. Needless to say, she was among the "best of the best." On behalf of the family of the late Fred C. and Nancy R. Davis, two former Dunjee teachers, I extend our family's deepest sympathy and condolences. Our entire family loved, admired, and cherished Mrs. Johnnie Stevenson. May God bless and comfort her family in the many days and weeks to come.

“ Words can never replace a loved one's touch or smile. Understand that we live our lives to shine and sometimes that light is on you. Ms. Johnnie Phillips Stevenson was a kind and gracious person. She taught me speech and I shall never forget the patience she had to work 2 years with us to put on a single play.

Many blessings to the entire family. Peace be with you.

“ The last time I saw beloved Mrs. Stevenson was in 2001. She was taking a long walk with her dear friend Mrs. Marzett. Since I was only in town for a few days, it was an absolute joy to spend time with her. I was delighted to see her on the road near Dunjee High School. We had a wonderful chat. As always, she was inquisitive and affirming. A woman of sophistication, she never yelled at we talkative ones in class; her demeanor was gracious and forthright.

Blessings to the Stevenson family. Madelyn Arbaugh Maine, Santa Clarita, CA.

To the Stevenson family. Ms. Stevenson was a great English and Literature teacher. I loved her dearly and she and my mom were great friends. I missed her when she left OKC , because : I used to love visiting with her. I was fortunate to acquire her book that she wrote. She was also my sons teacher and he thought the world of her and she him. She would always ask about him. RIP and one day we will travel that same path. Mrs. Stevenson came to Dunjee School when she was just out of college. Miss Phillips (at that time) and Miss Daniels (now Mrs. Marzett) were two of the best teachers I had at Dunjee. Mrs. Stevenson will be remembered as a very dedicated, articulate and caring teacher. I pray that the family will find comfort and strength from God's surrounding presence. May God Bless each of you abundantly. DeLois Anderson Anderson
