“ J.R. and my Dad, Theoplis Spigner, were more like brothers than uncle and nephew. J.R. and Jeannette had an all encompassing love for their children and family and before and especially after the passing of my Dad, I was happy to be a part of that family unit. J.;R.'s determination in life was to protect and cherish his family and to ensure that Jeannette always had a home that was beautiful and welcoming. Their love story is one that should be written. J.R. could be like a quiet storm, he was calm and cool most of the time, but you should never see him in a temper. In his latter years, facing health challenges he was graceful and stoic, he never stopped being Joseph, kind, loving and at peace. Rest in Heaven, my beloved cousin.

“ Our deepest memories are of cousin JR and Jeanetta (Uncle & Aunt) ❤️ when they lived in Los Angela’s, my Daddy Otto Hooks would take us to visit all our cousins, then with the move to the family town of Tatums, my Dad regularly was there at least 4 times a year 😊... me I’ve never been but sad to have to visit Aunt Jeanetta after, but thankful my Dad was able with my brothers to attend their 65th Anniversary in January 2019... Auntie Jeanetta and all my cousins we are with you in prayer 🙏...” I can do all things possible through Christ who strengthens me”-Philippians 4:13, our favorite.. He will strengthen each of you through this tremendous pain 😞 and make things possible 🙏
Love you Otto, Linda, Tony, Sherri Harris, Tassia Johnson and Derek

“ There is a lot I can say about Uncle J, he and Aunt Jeanette were more like brother and sister The first day he and Ktoe walk in Moma-Edith/Larcell’s house in their Army’s Uniform was some fine / handsome looking men. I saw Why Aunt Jeanette fell in love, going to missed you Uncle J you was the last of the OG. I got plenty of memories and I end with this - The party is on without us but that ok R.I.P. until I see you All again.....Pain in heart ❤️ Scooter
