

Mrs. Joy Zeigler

February 23, 1943 - June 8, 2018

Mrs. Joy Lynn Zeigler was born on February 23, 1942, in Houston, TX, to Mary Elsie and Samuel D. Harris. Both parents preceded her in death. She attended Houston public schools (Yates High), was accepted and entered Tuskegee where her father graduated. Tuskegee is also where she met her John Jr. Joy Lynn accepted Christ at an early age (St. Mary's Catholic Church of Houston) and was staunch in her faith. Banking and Retail were her professional industries of choice and she loved them both. It was fairly well known in both industries that customers seemed to follow her--she loved the interactions that took place. Joy Lynn leaves to mourn her dedicated and loving husband of 49 years, her John Jr. - as she called him. To this union two beautiful daughters were born: Joycelyn Michelle Zeigler (Cookie/Celle) and Jona Mache (Cherry/Chea) Zeigler. They have one granddaughter: Jazmin Lynn Zeigler. Her sister is Peggy A. Jones and her brother is Donald Phillip Harris. Joy and John met at Tuskegee Institute in Tuskegee, AL. She worked in the banking and retail industry for years. She loved people, gardening, shopping for clothes, socializing, and the men of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. She was loved by all and will be sorely missed. Also left to mourn her is her brother, Donald Phillip Harris of San Antonio, TX; her sister: Peggie Ann Jones (Wendell) of Arlington, VA; First Cousins: Oscar Criner and Harold Criner of Houston, TX; Christina Smith (Michael) Houston, TX; Donna De Sondh (Adam) of St. Thomas, Virgin Isle; a host of nieces, nephews, church family, nurses, doctors, and neighbors; Special Friends: Dr. James Graham and Jennifer Graham, Glenn Randle and Vera Randle, Rose Mary Gordon, Gloria Pollard, Leonard Edd, Mary Holloway, and "God All Mighty."

“ My Dear Joyi Lynn... Thanks for the joyful memories I have---for the times we ran up the hill to make it to class on time, for the times we ran down the hill to make it to the lunch room before the door was closed and locked, for the times we ran from the canteen to the dorm and just made it before the dorm door closed and locked, for the times we made you stay up and play cards because we needed a 4th or 5th person (you always insisted "your eyes were tired", we always insisted it was all in your head, for all the times you shared with me your dreams, aspirations for the future, your fears and discomfoting moments. Yes, there are other running times I remember. And, I thank you for them. Until we meet again in another life, another time I thank my God, my Lord and Savior for the privilege of your love and friendship in this lifetime. Until we meet again--Love You--Keep Smiling my friend!! Your friend ---- Maxine (MAX) Boxley (BOX)
