“ Crystal and Marcus, Your Mother was always so upbeat and willing to share her big beautiful smile. The last two conversations we had one was funny because you know she didn't like being called to early and we laughed because I called her and she didn't recognize my number and she was hot..lol. The second last call was the prayer call for Uncle Aaron and she prayed and prayed and thank God for her life and never complained about her pain. She was a strong loving person and mother, but God loved her more than we did and I'm grateful because she is healed and resting in the wonderful arms of her Savior.

Love you both,
Aunt Berta

“ Mama, I just simply love you. You taught me how to love and how to receive love. I am so honored to be your daughter. You loved without limits and became a mother to so many. I truly hope you knew how many people loved you, but most importantly- I hope you knew how much Marcus and I loved you. I'm lost, desperately waiting to see you. I'm struggling down here , mama. I'm comforted with knowing , on last Tuesday July 27th- you prayed for God to take you out of all of this pain- he answered. I love you , Craig!
