“ Karen and I met years ago when our children were in elementary school. We lived next door to each other. She always had a smile and kind words to share. When we moved our son's stayed brothers and we stayed friends. She will truly be missed.

“ I went to look at Christmas lights yesterday evening and all I was thinking about was my sister Karen ...us doing this together with our youth group from church and many other things we did together and worked on. I'm missing your calls, your smiling face, kind words, and her always saying I love you when we were together. R.I.P sweet Karen!
