“ Kasi, you will always be in my heart. You were such a great and supportive friend. Our memories together feel me with so much emotion! I am thankful the Lord put you in my life and blessed me with good times, great laughs, and shared tears! You will live on through your good works as a teacher, mother, and veteran. Rest easy, I love you!

“ Kasi you were the first big sister I ever had! I remember when we moved in the house on Morningside Drive and you painted your room yellow and I painted my room too. I remember begging you to sleep in your room Bc I was afraid of the dark lol . I used to tag along with you to the games and impede on your fun. You've always stayed in touch with me and I always loved that about you ! I guess I'll cheer for your college team now in remembrance of you! I love you !!

I will miss my beautiful niece and friend so, so much. She was our 2nd oldest niece in the family. She was vivacious, intelligent, beautiful, and so compassionate. She was very intuitive always caring for others before herself. Family was everything to her and her children were her life. Everything is still so surreal. God hears our cries and wipes our tears. Time is our healer. I love all of you and will be with you always.

I'm missing you deeply cousin. God must have needed an educator angel quickly. 😭 not talking to you on Instagram daily is another painful reminder..

I tell people all the time "it's the little things that means so much." like how we supported each other daily on IG you were one of my biggest supporter as I were your's. My deepest condolences family & trust

Kasi is flying high with her beautifully designed wings from God. Vy I'm keeping you all lifted up in prayers daily.💕💕💕😭

My daughter, my friend, it is so hard to have to say "See you on the other side." I love you so much and I miss you terribly. I am also so proud of you and the lives you've touched with your energy, your smile, drive, determination, humor, and your giving spirit. I don't understand this, but I am working on accepting that you were delivered from having to struggle yet again in this life time. I will always miss you, your daily phone calls, managing my wardrobe and checking on my health. I love you Babygirl.

Also, thank-you to everyone who sent your love, it is well appreciated.
