“ My sincerest condolences to the family. Am unable to attend due to health issues, but please know my heart goes out to you all in this time. You are all in my prayers and know my heart aches for you Kamesha. I thank you for communication during this type. Your Father would be so proud of how you have stepped up and handled that that you have. I understand the position of being a true "Daddy's Girl" because I am still one years after my father passed in 2008. It is a place in your heart that you hold forever. So hold you position. i will continue to pray for you all that the love that surrounds be that source of comfort that will sustain you through this your time of need and will assist your healing. May God Bless you and keep you! Always in Love! Denise Pickett and Family/Mesa AZ
