“ I'm so sorry for the loss of your husband Kenya. I just found out during the time of the service. You know the Lord will comfort and keep you always as he has done with the passing of your parents, uncle, and grandparents. Hold on to him. He'll never leave you or forsake you. Your village is near. We love you. LaMonte and Veola Bray

“ Kim was my college roommate and teammate. He was my little big brother. He was the best linemen on our college team. In high school he was All City in College he was All District he received numerous awards for his achievements on the football field. But the greatest achievement he accomplished was accepting his calling to preach the word of God. Kim will be missed and I know we will see each other again love you my brother, DEVO # 75

“ This is not goodbye for it is time to rejoice cousin kim was my lil chocolate chunky curly head cousin who came from Hawaii he was the good cousin who tagged along as we played at the big house. For some reason his knees were always ashy He learned quickly to get a place at the table. It was like musical chairs i will miss you cousin. Your smile your calls your visits and your gift of cooking. To be absent from the body is to be present with the lord. Gone but will never forget you love cousin Debbie
