He was a very kind, soft-spoken and humble man who had a deep love for his family. He had no biological children of his own but had dedicated nieces and nephews that he dearly loved and the feeling was mutual. He enjoyed his Birthday Parties and mingling on family gatherings. He loved people and not only had the role of “Uncle L.J.” to his nieces and nephews but was lovingly referred to as “Uncle L.J.” by family members’ Facebook friends. He enjoyed dominoes and watching sports.

After a brief illness, “Uncle L.J.”, who is now resting in the arms of our Heavenly Father, was called from the labors of this life into eternal rest on Thursday, January 19, 2023 at 2:34 pm.
