

Ms Leona A. Culton

December 12, 1937 - April 18, 2018

Minister Leona Arletha Harp-Culton was born December 12, 1937, in Watonga, OK. She was the fifth born to Wes and Elsie Harp. Minister Culton was reared in a Christian home and attended the Church of God in Christ. She received her primary education in Watonga, OK, and continued her education upon moving to Oklahoma City where she graduated from Douglas High School early with honors. Later, Minister Culton and her two sons moved to Los Angeles, CA, where she met and married Elroy Culton. Together, they owned and operated a successful antique store, home and healthcare business and designer hosiery boutique. Being the entrepreneur she was, she created and received a patent for "Teddy Love," a stuffed heart shaped bear. With all her many accomplishments, she did not stop there. Minister Culton had a love for children and became a certified therapeutic foster parent, and changed the lives of many. Once retired, Minister Leona Culton moved to Oklahoma City,
