

Mr. Leslie Hammond

July 6, 1963 - October 28, 2017

On July 6, 1963, a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Macon in Kansas City, MO. His name was Leslie Arnez Hammond. Leslie "Pete" was the only child born to this union.

Preceding him to heaven was his father and mother, one half-brother, and one half-sister.

Leslie attended and completed his education in the Kansas City, MO School System, and graduated from Job Corp in Lexington, KS.

After many years of living in Kansas City, MO, Leslie moved to Oklahoma City, OK. He was the proud father of five children and seven grand kids.

Leslie met and married Tracey Thompson and to this union no children were born.

Leslie loved his family, kept a smile on his face, loved to dance and make up songs about his family members. Leslie was a cook by trade and all around hand man; he was very outspoken and loved to fish/hunt.

Leslie professed his belief in Christ at an early age and loved reading the Bible. He kept his sword close to his side.

Leslie "Pete" Hammond departed this life on Friday,

October 27,2017.

He leaves to cherish his memory and homegoing, two sons, Parrish of Kansas City, MO and Leslie of Oklahoma City, OK; three daughters: Arnetra of Kansas City, MO, Lavonne and Faith, both of Oklahoma City, OK; two uncles, Roy Hammond of Denver, CO and John Hammond (Florida) of Kansas City, MO; four aunts: Jeanette Johnson of Oklahoma City, OK, Charlene, Maye, and Ethel, all of Little Rock, Arkansas; and a host of family members and friends.
